Insurance Information

Insurance information

All rental cars must have Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) and Theft Protection (TP). Each policy will be either:

- included or
- purchasable from the rental company, or

- provided by another company (e.g. your credit card company).

Collision Damage Waiver (CDW)

If the car's bodywork gets damaged, the most you'll pay towards repairs covered by the Collision Damage Waiver is the damage excess. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement. It doesn't cover other parts of the car (e.g. glass, wheels, interior, roof or undercarriage), or charges (e.g. for towing or off-road time), or anything in the car (e.g. child seats, GPS devices or personal belongings).

Theft Cover

If the car is stolen, the most you'll pay towards replacement costs covered by the policy is the theft excess. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Third-Party Liability (TPL)

Covers the driver's liability for any injuries and property damage that are included in the policy. It does not cover injuries to the driver or damage to the rental car. This cover is only valid if you stick to the terms of the rental agreement.

Loss or Damage

If the car is stolen, or seriously damaged, or damaged in an incident involving someone else, please contact the rental company and the police immediately. If you can't provide the necessary documents from the police, you'll be liable for the full cost of replacing/repairing the car. If the car gets slightly damaged, and no-one else is involved, please contact the rental company immediately.

The rental company is not liable for the loss of / theft of / damage to any belongings in the car, during or after the rental.

Damage to the car will be charged for by the car hire company after it is dropped off - and will incur a Damage Administration fee on top of the amount deducted from the excess.

Not included in the rental cover (CDW & TP)

Loss of / theft of / damage to: keys, aerials, jack, safety triangles and vests, windscreen wipers, petrol cap, luggage covers, or any other fixed or mobile component of the car.

Changing the length of your rental can affect how many miles you can drive for free. It can also affect how much you will pay for each additional mile.

Deposits, excess and cover

Deposit / Excess

The car has a theft excess of £2,500.00 including tax.

The rental company will require a security deposit of £300.00 when you pick your car up. The deposit will be returned after the rental, as long as all conditions have been met.

Fuel policy

Fuel Policies

Like for like

When you pick your car up, the fuel tank will be full or partly full. You will leave a deposit to cover the cost of the fuel: the counter staff will block this money on your credit card. Just before you return your car, please replace the fuel you've used.

The fuel tank will be either full or part-full. When you pick the car up, please check how much fuel there is. On return, as long as you've replaced the fuel you've used, you'll pay no fuel fees.

If you return your car with less fuel than it had when you picked it up, the car hire company will keep some or all of your deposit to cover the missing fuel. The cost of the missing fuel will be based on the supplier's current price per litre. This may cost you more than you would pay to refill the tank yourself.

You are responsible for using the correct fuel type for your rental vehicle, as specified by the supplier (for example, on the fuel cap, in the vehicle documentation or in the rental agreement). If you use the wrong fuel type, you will be responsible for all reasonable costs arising from the misfuelling, including any repair, replacement and cleaning costs.

E-cars

You must return the vehicle with at least 70% battery charge, or the same % battery charge as it had at time of pick-up.

If you return the electric vehicle with 70% or more battery charge - no fee.

If you return the electric vehicle with between 11% - 69% battery charge a fee of £43.00 applies.

If you return the electric vehicle with 10% or less battery charge a fee of £53.00 applies.

Before you drive away, you are responsible for checking the electric vehicle's charging port and any charging equipment supplied with the vehicle (e.g. the charging cable) for visible damage or defects. If you notice any damage, defect or other issue, you must inform the counter staff immediately and ensure that this is recorded on your rental agreement. If damage to the charging port or charging equipment is not reported at pick-up, you may be held responsible for such damage. You are responsible for using the vehicle's charging port and all charging equipment safely and in accordance with the manufacturer's and/or supplier's instructions during your rental. If any charging equipment or the vehicle's battery is damaged due to improper use, the supplier may charge you for the cost of repair or replacement.

Licence Requirements

When picking the car up, the main driver and any additional drivers will need to provide a full driving licence in their name.

Digital driving licences will not be accepted.

If you've had your driving licence renewed and it only shows the date it was renewed, you'll need to prove when it was originally issued.

All drivers must have held their driving licence for at least 12 months.

If you have any endorsements/points/penalties on your driving licence, please check the government website of the country/countries you're planning to drive in, to see if you will be allowed to drive.

If the licence doesn't state how long the driver has held the licence, then they must provide an older licence or a letter from their driving licence authority stating that they have held it for this minimum period.

It is each driver's responsibility to find out what paperwork they need before driving in another country. For example, you may need a visa and/or International Driving Permit as well as your driving licence.

All drivers must bring all parts of their valid driving licence with them. They must bring both their driving licence and either an international driving permit or an official English translation, by a notary, of their driving licence if:

- a driving licence was issued in Europe, and you are renting in a country outside Europe,
- a driving licence was issued in a non-European country, and you are renting outside that country. Except for customers from the following countries who can rent with their national drivers' licence and passport: Argentina, Australia, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Israel, Mexico, New Zealand, South Africa, and United States, or
- a driving licence was issued in a non-roman alphabet like Arabic, Greek, Russian, Hebrew, or Japanese.

DVLA Clauses & Rules

If you hold a UK driving licence, it's very important you get a licence 'check code' from the DVLA before you go to pick your car up. The counter staff will need this so they can check your driving record.

1. Visit www.gov.uk/view-driving-licence and click 'Start now'
2. Enter your driving licence number, National Insurance number & postcode
3. Tick the 'I agree' box and click 'View now'
4. Click 'Get your check code'
5. Click 'Get a code'
6. Write down your code – or click 'Print or save a driving summary'.

The code is only valid for 21 days – but once you've picked your car up, you won't need it anymore. So all you have to do is make sure you get your code less than three weeks before your pick-up date.

Forms of identification

At the counter, you'll need to provide:

Each driver's full, valid driving licence

Your rental voucher

Additional documents

Each driver's passport or ID card

Proof of the main driver's home address

A DVLA licence 'check code' for each driver

A current bank statement in the main driver's name

A current utility bill in the main driver's name

Rules around IDs

The address on the driving licence must be the same as your current address. If the address is not the same, please provide proof of a pending address change.

If you live in the same country where you are renting the vehicle and do not meet our identification verification requirements, it is recommended that you bring along 2 utility bills and/or bank statements. These documents should be issued within 3 months prior to your pick-up date and must match the address on your driving licence. In these circumstances, your driving licence will not be accepted as proof of your address.

When collecting a vehicle, the following travel documents are required based on your pick-up location:

Airport locations: A valid flight ticket.

Train station locations: A valid train ticket.

Ferry locations: A valid ferry ticket.

Rental Voucher / eVoucher

At pick-up, the car hire company will require EITHER a printed copy of the customer's voucher OR an eVoucher. If this is not presented, the car hire company may not allow the car to be picked up, or may charge again for the rental.

Age Requirements

To drive this car, you must be at least 25.

To drive this car, you must be under the age of 75.

Arrival details

You must arrive at the rental counter by your scheduled pick-up time. Some service providers offer a limited grace period for late arrival, which will be detailed in your Rental Agreement and the 'Important Info' section accepted at checkout. If you arrive after the pick-up time and any applicable grace period, the vehicle will no longer be available and standard cancellation charges will apply.
